PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

I hope to contribute my knowledge of the Spanish language within some specialized context in the future, whether it be in a military, economic or translation setting.

What I already contribute is leadership, initiative and an understanding of the Spanish language within military and classroom environments.

As I will be a United States Army Officer in the following months, I hope to again have the opportunity to train with the Armed Forces of partner nations.

STRENGTHS

- Current Spanish language proficiency level, C1
- Military leadership positions
- Linear Regression Model Interpretation
- Communication
